

Location Code Directory

Location codes (used as part of the incident number) determines where the fire occurs and if it was within a city, district, town, village, regional district or First Nations Land. Location codes are comprised of three letters, for example “CVA” is the location code for the City of Vancouver.

Note: At the end of the directory is a location code directory for First Nation Bands.